Subscription Activation Tutorial

Welcome to your subscription to inHEALTH's LAT Compendium. You are only a few steps away from receiving access to our relational database as well as the Emerging Issues and Newsletter Updates. Please clear your web browser cache before trying to access the Compendium after activating your subscription.

Please follow the below instructions for access to inHEALTH's LAT Compendium.

1. Retrieve your confirmation email from your inbox from inHEALTH including your username, password, link for individual users and Company code.
2. Distribute your Company Code, Subscription Level and link included in the email to all individuals within your company that you would like to receive access. Please remember that this code is only valid for the number of users you've requested.
3. Individual users will be prompted to input their Company Code under the "Discount Code" field. Individual users must create a Username and Password to log into the Compendium.

The screenshot shows the inHEALTH website's subscription activation page. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for "Subscribe", "Blog", "About Us", "Contact Us", "News/Media", and "Log in". Below this is the inHEALTH logo and a secondary navigation bar with links for "Home", "LAT Compendium", "CARS", "Auditing & Consulting Services", "Specialized Training", and "Our Value".

The main content area is titled "Membership Level" and indicates that the user has selected the "Bronze" membership level. It states that the price for membership is $1,695.00 now. A red box highlights a field asking "Do you have a discount code? Click here to enter your discount code." Below this is the "Account Information" section, which includes fields for "Username", "Password", and "Confirm Password".

To the right of the account information, there is a "BRONZE LEVEL" membership card showing a price of "$125 PER MONTH". Below the card, it lists "500 Events Annually" and "Unlimited Users".

Further right, there is a "Your Subscription Includes:" section with a list of benefits: "Access to a relational database equipped with comprehensive search variables", "Updates on emerging issues, trends and compendium-related news via email", "Identification of new decisions posted by the LAT via email", and "Neutral, fact-based *Read More". A "Questions? Let's Chat" button is located at the bottom right of this section.

Licence Appeal Tribunal (LAT) Automobile Accident Benefits Service (AABS) Compendium inHEALTH's LAT AABS Compendium is a relational database providing all stakeholders with access to abbreviated results and direct links to CANLII decisions. It is a value add feature to inHEALTH's services; the Compendium refines our adjusting precision and drives our efficient and effective method of claims evaluation.

As decisions continue to be published at the LAT, there comes a growing volume of reference points and precedents. Professionals in this area, ranging from a frontline adjuster to an advocate at the LAT, can access information to:

- Complete risk assessment
- Guide decision-making
- Drive effective and efficient evaluation
- Prepare for LAT proceedings

Receive updates on newly added decisions within 48 hours of publication date, highlighting emerging issues.
